An Easter Message from Bishop Danny Garcia

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

I just wanted to briefly wish all of you a Blessed Holy Week. The liturgies of the Triduum go to the very heart of who we are as followers of Jesus Christ. I pray that they will be as meaningful for you as they have always been for me. As a Church, society, and world, there is so much for us to ponder and pray for these days.

I am very grateful to our Holy Father, Francis, for his leadership, voice, and example, especially as he confronts his own personal suffering. Although challenged by his own physical limitations, he is an inspiration for all of us. We continue to pray for his well-being and recovery.

I invite you to join me in remembering the many people in our communities, young and old, who find themselves fearful and concerned about their own personal well-being in these challenging times. I pray that these festive and meaningful liturgies of Holy Week will assist us to commit ourselves ever more so to assisting our brothers and sisters, especially those on the peripheries of our society.

Blessed Holy Week and Easter to all of you!

Most Reverend Daniel E. Garcia
Bishop of Monterey
