This Week's Message from Father Martel

Dear Parish Community,

This Sunday, we reflect on one of Jesus' most famous parables, the Good Samaritan. It's a story many of us learned as kids — yet it still captures the core of what it means to be Christian: recognizing others' suffering and responding with kindness.

In the parable, it's not the priest or the Levite who stops to help, but a Samaritan — a stranger — who choose to show mercy and interrupt his journey. Jesus concludes the story with a simple command: "Go and do likewise." That command is meant for each of us.

Here at St. Joseph's, one way we are trying to "do likewise" is through our parish Food Pantry. Week after week, volunteers quietly help those in need from our local community — people who are hungry, struggling, or simply in need of kindness. It's a strong example of what the Gospel looks like in action.

If you're looking for a way to live out today's Gospel, I invite you to consider supporting the Food Pantry — whether through your time, donations, or prayers. Every small act of compassion matters.

May we continue to be a parish known not only for our prayers, but also for our mercy.
